- VIII. Support, protect, and defend the integrity of the CTFO Associate opportunity;
- IX. Accurately complete and submit the Associate Agreement and any requested supporting documentation in a timely manner.
- X. Stay up-to-date on any and all changes to CTFO's Policies & Procedures

1.2 CTFO Policies and Compensation Plan Incorporated into the Associate Agreement

- A. Throughout these Policies, when the term "Agreement" is used, it collectively refers to the CTFO Agreement, these Policies and Procedures, and the Company Compensation Plan.
- B. It is the responsibility of the Sponsoring Associate to provide the most current version of these Policies and Procedures (available on the CTFO website through your back office library) and the Company Compensation Plan to each applicant prior to his, her and/or its execution of an Associate Agreement.

1.3 Purpose of Policies

- A. CTFO is a direct sales company that markets products through a network of business owners. To clearly define the relationship that exists between the Company and its Associates, and to explicitly set a standard for acceptable business conduct, CTFO has established these Policies and Procedures.
- B. CTFO Associates are required to comply with: (i) all of the terms and conditions set forth in the Associate Agreement, which the Company may amend from time to time in its sole discretion; (ii) all federal, state, and local laws governing his, her and/or its CTFO business; and (iii) these Policies and Procedures.
- C. CTFO Associates must review the information in these Policies and Procedures carefully. Should an Associate have any questions regarding a policy or rule, the Associate is encouraged to seek an answer from their Sponsor or any other upline Associate. If further clarification is needed, the Associate may contact the Support Center at 707-449-4567 or support@myctfo.com

1.4 Changes, Amendments, and Modifications

- A. Because federal, state, and local laws, as well as the business environment, periodically change, the Company reserves the right to amend the Agreement and the prices in its Product Price List in its sole and absolute discretion. Notification of amendments shall appear in Official Corporate Materials. This provision does NOT apply to the arbitration clause found in Section 12, which can only be modified via mutual consent.
- B. Any such amendment, change, or modification shall be effective immediately upon notice by one of the following methods:
 - I. Posting on the official Corporate website;
 - II. Electronic mail (e-mail); or
 - III. In writing through the CTFO newsletters or other CTFO communication channels.

1.5 Delays

CTFO shall not be responsible for delays or failures in performance of its obligations when such failure is due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control. This includes, without limitation, strikes, labor difficulties, transportation difficulties, riot, war, fire, and/or weather, curtailment of a source of supply, or government decrees or orders.

1.6 Effective Date

These Policies and Procedures shall become effective as of August 22nd, 2019 (“Effective Date”) and, at such time, shall automatically supersede any prior Policies and Procedures (the “old Policies and Procedures”).

2.0 BASIC PRINCIPLES

2.1 Becoming a CTFO Associate

1325 Airmotive Way, Suite 175-L
Reno, NV 89502
707-449-4567
support@myctfo.com

- A. To become an Associate, an applicant must comply with the following requirements:
- I. Be of the age of majority (not a minor) in his or her state of residence;
 - II. Reside or have a valid address in the United States, U.S. territory, Canada, UK, Ireland or Sweden;
 - III. Have a valid taxpayer identification number (i.e. Social Security Number, Federal Tax ID Number, ITIN, etc.)

2.2 New Associate Registration

- A. A potential new Associate may self-enroll on the Sponsor's website. In such event, instead of a physically signed Associate Agreement, CTFO will accept the web-enrollment and Associate Agreement by way of one's submission of his, her or its "electronic signature." The electronic signature signifies that the new Associate has accepted the terms and conditions of the Associate Agreement. Please note that such electronic signature constitutes a legally binding agreement between you and the Company.
- B. CTFO reserves the right to require signed paperwork for any account, regardless of origin.
- C. If requested, the signed Associate Agreement must be received by the Company within ten (10) days of enrollment.
- D. Signed documents, including, but not limited to, personal Associate agreements, are legally binding contracts which must not be altered, tampered with or changed in any manner after they have been signed. False or misleading information, forged signatures or alterations to any document, including business registration forms, made after a document has been signed may lead to sanctions, up to and including involuntary termination of the Associate's position.

2.3 Rights Granted

- A. CTFO hereby grants to the Associate a non-exclusive right, based upon the terms and conditions contained in the Associate Agreement and these Policies and Procedures, to:
- I. Purchase CTFO products and services;
 - II. Promote and sell CTFO products and services; and
 - III. Sponsor new Associates and Customers in the United States and in countries where CTFO may become established after the effective date of these Policies and Procedures.

2.4 Identification Numbers

- A. Each Associate is required to provide his or her Social Security Number, or Federal Tax Identification Number, if located in the United States or any of its territories, to CTFO on the Associate Agreement. CTFO reserves the right to withhold commission payments from any Associate who fails to provide such information or who provides false information.
- B. Upon enrollment, CTFO will provide an Identification Number to the Associate. This number will be used to place orders, structure organizations, and track commissions and bonuses.

2.5 Expiration of the Associate Agreement

- A. Any Associate who is terminated by CTFO is not eligible to re-apply for an Associate position at CTFO any time, without expressed written consent of the Company.
- B. Any Associate who cancels their account, of their own choosing, will be eligible to re-apply for a CTFO Associate position six (6) months from the date of the cancellation of the Associate Agreement.
- C. If an Associate does not produce at least 45 PSV during the previous 60 days or does not have at least 10 active Directs at the same time during the previous 60 days, their status will change from Associate to Customer and he/she will no longer earn on the sales of products in their organization.

2.6 Business Entities

- A. A corporation, partnership, LLC, or trust (collectively referred to as a "Business Entity") may apply to be a CTFO Associate. This Associate business and position will remain temporary until the proper documents are submitted. The Business Entity must submit one of the following documents: Certificate of Incorporation, Articles of Organization, Partnership Agreement or appropriate Trust documents. Company must receive these documents within ten (10) days from the date the Associate Agreement was signed.
- B. A CTFO Associate may change their status under the same Sponsor from an individual to a partnership, LLC, corporation, trust or from one type of business entity to another.

2.7 Independent Business Relationship; Indemnification for Actions

- A. The CTFO Associate is an independent contractor, and not a purchaser of a franchise or business opportunity. Therefore, each Associate's success depends on his, her or its independent efforts.
- B. The Agreement between CTFO and its Associates does not create an employer/employee relationship, agency, partnership, or joint venture between you and the Company.

1325 Airmotive Way, Suite 175-L
Reno, NV 89502
707-449-4567
support@myctfo.com

- C. A CTFO Independent Associate shall not be treated as an employee of CTFO for any purposes, including, without limitation, for federal, state or Provincial tax purposes. All Associates are responsible for paying local, state, federal and Provincial taxes due from all compensation earned as an Associate of CTFO. Any other compensation received by Associates from the Company will be governed by applicable U.S. or Canadian tax laws (or the tax laws of any other applicable jurisdiction). The Associate has no express or implied authority to bind CTFO to any obligation or to make any commitments by or on behalf of the Company. Each Associate, whether acting as management of a Business Entity or represented as an individual, shall establish his, her or its own goals, hours, and methods of operation and sale, so long as he, she or it complies with the terms of the Associate Agreement, these Policies and Procedures and applicable state, federal or Provincial laws.
- D. The CTFO Independent Associate is fully responsible for all of his, her or its verbal and written communications made regarding CTFO products and the Compensation Plan that are not expressly contained within official Corporate materials. Associates shall indemnify and hold harmless CTFO, its directors, officers, employees, product suppliers and agents from any and against all liability including judgments, civil penalties, refunds, attorney fees and court costs incurred by the Company as a result of the Associate's unauthorized representations or actions. This Provision shall survive the termination of the CTFO Associate Agreement.

2.8 Insurance

- A. Business Pursuits Coverage. CTFO encourages Associates to arrange insurance coverage for their business. A homeowner's insurance policy does not cover business related injuries, or the theft of, or damage to, inventory or business equipment. CTFO Associates need to contact their insurance agent to make certain their business property is protected. In most instances, this may be accomplished with a "Business Pursuit" endorsement to an existing homeowner's policy.

2.9 Errors or Questions

- A. If an Associate has questions about, or believes any errors have been made regarding commissions, bonuses, business reports, orders, or charges, the Associate must notify the Company in writing within thirty (30) days of the date of the error or incident in question. Any such errors, omissions or problems not reported within thirty days shall be deemed waived by the Associate.

3.0 CTFO ASSOCIATE RESPONSIBILITIES

3.1 Correct Addresses

1325 Airmotive Way, Suite 175-L
Reno, NV 89502
707-449-4567
support@myctfo.com

- A. It is the responsibility of the Associate or Customer to make sure CTFO has the correct shipping address before any orders are shipped.
- B. An Associate or Customer will need to allow up to thirty (30) days for processing after any notice of address change has been sent and subsequently received by the Company.

3.2 Training and Leadership

- A. Any Associate who Sponsors another Associate into CTFO must perform an authentic assistance and training function to ensure his or her downline is properly operating his, her or its CTFO business. Sponsoring Associates should have ongoing contact and communication with the Associates in their downline organizations. Examples of communication may include, but are not limited to, newsletters, written correspondence, telephone, contact, team calls, voice-mail, e-mail, personal meetings, accompaniment of downline Associates to Company meetings, training sessions and any other related functions.
- B. A Sponsoring Associate should monitor the Associates in his or her downline organizations to ensure that downline Associates do not make improper product or business claims, or engage in any illegal or inappropriate conduct. Upon request, such Associate should be able to provide documented evidence to CTFO of his, her or its ongoing fulfillment of the responsibilities of a Sponsor.
- C. Upline Associates are encouraged to motivate and train new Associates about CTFO's products, effective sales techniques, the Company Compensation Plan and compliance with the Company Policies and Procedures.
- D. Marketing product is a required activity in CTFO and must be emphasized in all recruiting presentations.
- E. We emphasize and encourage all Associates to sell CTFO's products to Customers.
- F. Use of Sales Aids. To promote both the products and the opportunity CTFO offers, Associates must use the sales aids and support materials produced by the Company. If Associates develop their own sales aids and promotional materials, which includes Internet advertising, notwithstanding the Associates' good intentions, they may unintentionally violate any number of statutes or regulations affecting the CTFO business. These violations, although they may be relatively few in number, could jeopardize the CTFO opportunity for all Associates. Accordingly, Associates must submit all written sales aids, promotional materials, advertisements, websites and other literature to the Company for

3.3 Constructive Criticism; Ethics

- A. CTFO desires to provide its independent Associates with the best products and Compensation Plan in the industry. Accordingly, the Company values constructive criticism and encourages the submission of written comments addressed to the Company Compliance Department.

1325 Airmotive Way, Suite 175-L
Reno, NV 89502
707-449-4567
support@myctfo.com

- B. Negative and disparaging comments by Associates about the Company, its products or Compensation Plan serve no purpose other than to dampen the enthusiasm of other CTFO Associates. Associates must not belittle the Company, other CTFO Associates, Company products, the Compensation Plan, or Company directors, officers, or employees, product suppliers or agents. Such conduct represents a material breach of these Policies and Procedures and may be subject to sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Company.
- C. CTFO endorses the following code of ethics:
- I. As a representative of our company, all CTFO Independent Associates must show fairness, tolerance, and respect to all people, regardless of race, gender, social class or religion, thereby fostering a “positive atmosphere”, good morale and community spirit.
 - II. An Associate shall strive to resolve business issues, including situations with up-line and downline Associates, by emphasizing tact, sensitivity, good will and taking care not to create additional problems.
 - III. CTFO Associates must be honest, responsible, professional and conduct themselves with integrity.
 - IV. CTFO Associates shall not make disparaging statements about the Company, other Associates, Company employees, product suppliers or agents, products, sales and marketing campaigns, or the Compensation Plan, or make statements that unreasonably offend, mislead or coerce others.
 - V. CTFO Associates are to treat Company employees with respect. Any person(s) using abusive or threatening language toward a Company employee may be subject to disciplinary action up to termination.
- D. CTFO may take appropriate action against any Associate if it determines, in its sole discretion, that an Associate’s conduct is detrimental, disruptive, or injurious to the Company, its employees or to any other Associates.

3.4 Reporting Policy Violation

- A. An Associate who observes a policy violation by another Associate should submit a written and signed letter of the violation directly to the Director of Compliance at compliance@myctfo.com. The letter shall set forth the details of the incident as follows:
- I. The nature of the violation;
 - II. Specific facts to support the allegations;
 - III. Dates;
 - IV. Number of occurrences;

1325 Airmotive Way, Suite 175-L
Reno, NV 89502
707-449-4567
support@myctfo.com

- E. All active Associates in good standing have the right to Sponsor and enroll others into CTFO. While engaged in sponsoring activities, it is not uncommon to encounter situations when more than one Associate will approach the same prospect. It is the accepted courtesy that the new prospect will be sponsored by the first Associate who presented a comprehensive introduction to CTFO products or business opportunity.
- F. A Protected Prospect is a guest of any CTFO Associate or Customer who attended a Company event or conference call. For forty (40) days following the event, a Protected Prospect cannot be solicited or sponsored by any other Associate who attended the same event. A Company event can be defined as the following:
 - I. Any CTFO training session;
 - II. Conference call;
 - III. Fly-in meeting; or
 - IV. Presentation, including but not limited to a CTFO at home presentation, whether sponsored by the Company, an Associate, a Customer, or an agent or agency designated by the Company.

3.6 Cross Recruiting Prohibition

- A. "Cross recruiting" is defined as the enrollment into a different line of sponsorship of an individual, or Business Entity, that already has a signed Associate Agreement. Actual or attempted cross sponsoring is not allowed. If cross sponsoring is verified by the Company, sanctions up to and including termination of an Associate's business and position may be imposed.
- B. The use of a Spouse's or relative's name, trade names, assumed names, DBA names, corporation, partnership, trust, federal ID numbers, or fictitious ID numbers to evade or circumvent this Policy is not permitted.
- C. This Policy does not prohibit the transfer of a CTFO business in accordance with the Sale or Transfer Policy set forth in these Policies.

3.7 Adherence to the Company Compensation Plan

- A. An Associate must adhere to the terms of the CTFO Compensation Plan as set forth in these Policies and Procedures as well as in official Company literature. Deviation from the Compensation Plan is prohibited.
- B. An Associate shall not offer the CTFO opportunity through, or in combination with, any other system, program, or method of marketing other than that specifically set forth in official Corporate literature.

1325 Airmotive Way, Suite 175-L
Reno, NV 89502
707-449-4567
support@myctfo.com

- C. An Associate shall not require or encourage a current or prospective Customer or Associate to participate in CTFO in any manner that varies from the Compensation Plan as set forth in official Corporate literature.
- D. An Associate shall not require or encourage a current or prospective Customer or Associate to make a purchase from or payment to any individual or other entity as a condition to participating in the Company Compensation Plan, other than such purchases or payments required to naturally build their business.

3.8 Adherence to Laws and Ordinances

- A. Many cities and counties have laws regulating certain home-based businesses. In most cases, these ordinances do not apply to Associates because of the nature of the business. However, Associates must check their local laws and obey the laws that do apply to them.
- B. A CTFO Associate shall comply with all Provincial, federal, state, and local laws and regulations in their conduct of his, her or its CTFO business.

3.9 Compliance with Applicable Income Tax Laws

- A. CTFO will automatically provide a complete 1099 Miscellaneous Income Tax form (non-employee compensation) to each US Associate whose earnings for the year is at least $600 or who has purchased more than $5,000 of Company products for resale, or who received trips, prizes or awards valued at $600 or more. If earnings and purchases are less than stated above, IRS forms will be sent only at the request of the Associate, and a minimum charge of $20 may be assessed by the Company. Canadian T-4's will be sent to Associates who earn more than $500 or who received trips, prizes, or awards valued at $500 or more. CTFO Associates are responsible for the payment of taxes on these trips, prizes, or awards provided to them by CTFO.
- B. An Associate accepts sole responsibility for and agrees to pay all Provincial, federal, state, and local taxes on any income generated as an independent Associate, and further agrees to indemnify the Company from any failure to pay such tax amounts when due.
- C. If an Associate's business is tax exempt, the Federal Tax Identification number must be provided to the Company in writing.
- D. CTFO encourages all Associates to consult with a tax advisor for additional information for their business.

3.10 One CTFO Business per Associate

1325 Airmotive Way, Suite 175-L
Reno, NV 89502
707-449-4567
support@myctfo.com

An Associate may operate or have an ownership interest, legal or equitable, as a sole proprietorship, partner, shareholder, trustee, or beneficiary, in only one (1) CTFO business. No individual may have, operate or receive compensation from more than one CTFO businesses. Individuals of the same family unit may each enter into or have an interest in their own separate CTFO businesses, only if each subsequent family position is placed frontline to the first family member enrolled. A “family unit” is defined as Spouses and dependent children living at or doing business at the same address.

3.11 Actions of Household Members or Associated Parties

If any member of an Associate’s immediate household engages in any activity which, if performed by the Associate, would violate any provision of the Agreement, such activity will be deemed a violation by the Associate and CTFO may take disciplinary action pursuant to these Policies and Procedures against the Associate. Similarly, if any individual associated in any way with a corporation, partnership, LLC, trust or other entity (collectively “Business Entity”) violates the Agreement, such action(s) will be deemed a violation by the Business Entity, and CTFO may take disciplinary action against the Business Entity. Likewise, if an Associate enrolls in CTFO as a Business Entity, each Associated Party of the Business Entity shall be personally and individually bound to, and must comply with, the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

3.12 Solicitation for Other Companies or Products

- A. An Associate may participate in other direct sales, multilevel, network marketing or relationship marketing business ventures or marketing opportunities. However, during the Term of this Agreement and for six (6) months thereafter, a CTFO Associate may not recruit any CTFO Associate or Customer for any other direct sales or network marketing business, unless that Associate or Customer was personally sponsored by such Associate.
- B. The term “recruit” means actual or attempted solicitation, enrollment, encouragement, or effort to influence in any other way (either directly or through a third party), another Associate or Customer to enroll or participate in any direct sales or network marketing opportunity. This conduct represents recruiting even if the Associate’s actions are in response to an inquiry made by another Associate or Customer.
- C. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of six (6) months thereafter, any CTFO Associate must not sell, or entice others to sell, any competing products to CTFO Customers or Associates. Any product in the same category as a CTFO product is deemed to be competing (i.e., any competing weight loss or CBD product(s) regardless of cost or quality).
- D. However, an Associate may sell non-competing products to CTFO Customers and Associates that they personally sponsored.

1325 Airmotive Way, Suite 175-L
Reno, NV 89502
707-449-4567
support@myctfo.com

- E. An Associate may not display or bundle Company products, in sales literature, on a website or in sales meetings, with any other products to avoid confusing or misleading a prospective Customer or Associate into believing there is a relationship between the Company and non-CTFO products.
- F. An Associate may not offer any non-CTFO opportunity or products at any Company-related meeting, seminar or convention, or immediately following a Company event.
- G. A violation of any of the provisions in this section shall constitute unreasonable and unwarranted contractual interference between CTFO and its Associates and would inflict irreparable harm on the Company. In such event, the Company may, at its sole discretion, impose any sanction it deems necessary and appropriate against such Associate or such Associate's positions including termination, or seek immediate injunctive relief without the necessity of posting a bond.

3.13 Exclusivity Requirement for Qualified Rank Enhanced Compensation and Status

As CTFO Independent Associates advance in Rank, a higher duty of loyalty to the Company is expected, arising from increased compensation opportunities, increased leadership contact with expanded sales force populations, increased training and interaction with Company management and leaders, and increased access to confidential and proprietary information from the Company. Therefore, during the term of this Agreement, in consideration of qualification for enhanced compensation and other benefits in the CTFO program, available to the rank of $25K Vice President level Independent Associate and above, any CTFO Associate with a rank of $25K Vice President and above, shall not participate as a distributor or cooperate in any direct selling, network marketing, or multilevel marketing company other than CTFO, with a product line that is in direct competition with the CTFO Products. An Independent Associate, who is in violation of this prohibition, shall be subject to rank demotion and/or termination at the election of the company.

3.14 Presentation of the CTFO Opportunity

- A. In presenting the CTFO opportunity to potential Customers and Associates, an Associate is required to comply with the following provisions:
 - I. An Associate shall not misquote or omit any significant material fact about the Compensation Plan.
 - II. An Associate shall make it clear that the Compensation Plan is based upon sales of CTFO products and upon the sponsoring of other Associates.
 - III. An Associate shall make it clear that success can be achieved only through substantial independent efforts.
 - IV. A CTFO Associate shall not make unauthorized income projections, claims, or guarantees while presenting or discussing the CTFO opportunity or Compensation Plan to prospective Associates or Customers. In particular, an Associate should never represent that one can be successful without diligently applying commitment, effort and sales skills. Examples of misrepresentations include, but are not limited to:

Reno, NV 89502
707-449-4567
support@myctfo.com

- a. It's a turnkey system.
- b. The system will do the work for you.
- c. Just get in and your downline will build through spillover.
- d. Just join and I'll build your downline for you.
- e. The Company does all the work for you.
- f. You don't have to sell anything.
- g. All you have to do is buy your products every month.

The above are examples of improper misrepresentations about the Company and its Compensation Plan. If the Company receives word you are making statements similar in nature to the aforementioned examples, disciplinary action may ensue.

- V. An Associate may not make any claims regarding products offered by CTFO, except those contained in official Corporate literature.
- VI. An Associate may not use official Company material to promote the CTFO opportunity in any country where CTFO has not established a "presence."
- VII. In an effort to conduct best business practices, the Company has developed the Income Disclosure Statement ("IDS"). The CTFO IDS is designed to convey truthful, timely, and comprehensive information regarding the income that CTFO Associates earn. In order to accomplish this objective, a copy of the IDS must be presented to all prospective Associates.

A copy of the IDS must be presented to a prospective Associate anytime the Compensation Plan is presented or discussed, or any type of income claim or earnings representation is made.

The terms "income claim" and/or "earnings representation" (collectively "income claim") includes the following: (1) statements of average earnings; (2) statements of non-average earnings; (3) statements of earnings ranges; (4) income testimonials; (5) lifestyle claims; and (6) hypothetical claims. Examples of "statements of non-average earnings" includes, "Our number one Associate earned over six hundred thousand dollars last year" or "Our average-ranking Associate makes two thousand per month." An example of a "statement of earnings ranges" is "The monthly income for our higher-ranking Associates is eight thousand dollars on the low end to twenty-five thousand dollars a month on the high end."

3.15 Sales Requirements Are Governed by the Compensation Plan

- A. The Company provides resale prices. There are no exclusive territories granted to anyone. No franchise fees are applicable to a CTFO business.
- B. The CTFO program is built on sales to the ultimate consumer. The Company encourages its Associates to only purchase inventory that they and their family will personally consume, will be used as a sales tool, or will be resold to others for their ultimate consumption. Associates must never attempt to influence any other Associate to buy more products than they can reasonably use or sell to Customers in a month.

4.0 ORDERING

4.1 General Order Policies

- A. “Bonus Buying” is strictly and absolutely prohibited. Bonus Buying includes the following: (1) the enrollment of individuals or entities without the knowledge of and/or execution of an Agreement by such individuals or Business Entities; (2) the fraudulent enrollment of an individual or entity as an Associate or Customer; (3) the enrollment or attempted enrollment of non-existent individuals or Business Entities as Associates or Customers (“phantoms”); (4) purchasing CTFO products on behalf of another Associate or Customer, or under another Associate’s or Customer’s ID number, to qualify for commissions or bonuses; (5) purchasing excessive amounts of products that cannot reasonably be used or resold in a month; and/or (6) any other mechanism or artifice to qualify for rank advancement, incentives, prizes, commissions, or bonuses that is not driven by bona fide product or service purchases by end user consumers.

An Associate shall not use another Associate’s or Customer’s credit card or debit checking account to enroll in CTFO or purchase products without the account holder’s express written permission. Such documentation must be kept by the Associate indefinitely in case the Company needs to reference this.

- B. Regarding an order with an invalid or incorrect payment, the Company will attempt to contact the Associate by phone, mail or e-mail in order to obtain another form of payment. If these attempts are unsuccessful after five (5) business days, the order will be canceled.
- C. Prices are subject to change without notice.
- D. An Associate or Customer who is a recipient of a damaged or incorrect order must notify the Company within thirty (30) calendar days from receipt of the order and follow the Procedures as set forth in these Policies.

4.2 Insufficient Funds

- A. All checks returned for insufficient funds will be re-submitted for payment. A $35 fee will be charged to the account of the Associate or Customer for all returned checks and insufficient funds.

Deductions will occur in the month in which the refund is given and continue every pay period thereafter until the bonus/and or commission is recovered.
- B. In the event that an Associate terminates his or her position/business, and the amounts of the bonuses or commissions attributable to the returned products have not yet been fully recovered by CTFO, the remainder of the outstanding balance may be offset against any other amounts that may be owed by the Company to the terminated Associate.

6.0 SATISFACTION GUARANTEED AND RETURN OF SALES AIDS

CTFO offers a one-time, one hundred percent (100%) sixty (60) day money back guarantee for all Customers and/or Associates on any product. This does not include shipping and handling charges. Please note: Once a Customer/Associate request a refund on a specific product, subsequent orders of the same product are non-refundable.

For any Customer returns, the Company shall deduct from the reimbursement paid to the Associate any commissions, bonuses, rebates or other incentives received by the Associate which were associated with the Customer returns.

6.1 Return Process

- A. As stated above, CTFO does not allow a Customer or Associate to return the same product more than once. After the initial refund and return of a product, the Customer and/or Associate agrees that subsequent orders of the same product are non-refundable.
- B. All returns, whether by a Customer or Associate, must be made as follows:
 - I. Ship items to the address provided by CTFO Customer Service.

In particular, no Associate may make any claim that CTFO products are useful in the cure, treatment, diagnosis, heal mitigation or prevention of any diseases. support@myctfo.com

1. An Associate may not use or attempt to register any of CTFO's trade names, trademarks, service marks, product names, URLs, advertising phrases, the Company's name or any derivative thereof, for any purpose including, but not limited to, Internet Domain names (URL), third party websites, email addresses, Independent Associate username, web pages, or blogs.
2. An Associate may not sell Company products or offer the CTFO opportunity using "online auctions", such as eBay or online marketplaces, such as Amazon.
3. All Associates may have one (1) approved third-party website. A third-party website is a personal website that is hosted on a non-CTFO server and has no affiliation with Corporate. Third-party websites may be used to promote your business and CTFO products so long as the third-party adheres to Company advertising policies. Moreover, no orders may be placed through third party websites, and no enrollments may occur through a third-party website. If you wish to use any third-party website, you must do the following:
 - a. Clearly and conspicuously identify yourself as an Independent Associate for CTFO. Clearly and conspicuously that the third-party website is not a corporate website (as websites that do not identify the promotor of the site and/or that he/she/it is promoting CTFO products, called "blind" websites - are strictly prohibited;
 - b. Use only the approved images and wording authorized by the Company;
 - c. Adhere to the branding, trademark, and image usage policies described in this document;
 - d. Adhere to any other provision regarding the use of a third-party website described in this document;
 - e. Agree to give the Compliance Department at CTFO access to the third-party website and, if the website password is protected, the Compliance Department must receive passwords or credentials allowing unlimited access;
 - f. Agree to modify your website to comply with current or future Company policies;
 - g. Directly link third-party website to Associate's company-provided replicated website to process sales and/or enrollments.

All marketing materials used on an Associate's third-party website must be provided by CTFO or approved in writing by the Company.

To avoid confusion, the following three elements must also be prominently displayed at the top of every page of your third-party website:

1. The CTFO Associate Logo
2. Your Name and Title
3. CTFO Corporate Website Redirect Button

support@myctfo.com

An Associate may not use third-party sites that contain materials copied from corporate sources (such as CTFO brochures, CDs, videos, tapes, events, presentations, and corporate websites). This Policy ensures brand consistency, allows Customers and Associates to stay up-to-date with changing products, services and information, facilitates enrollment under the correct Sponsor, and assists in compliance with government regulations.

CTFO products must be exclusively displayed on an Associate's third-party website. The third-party website should not display any other products and services not marketed or sold by the Company.

If the independent CTFO business of an Associate who has received authorization to create and post an third-party website is voluntarily or involuntarily canceled for any reason, or if the Company revokes its authorization allowing the Associate to maintain a third-party website, the Associate shall assign the URL to his/her third-party website to the Company Compliance Department within three (3) days from the date of the cancellation and/or re-direct all traffic to the site as directed by the Company. CTFO reserves the right to revoke any Associate's right to use a third-party website at any time if the Company believes that such revocation is in the best interest of CTFO, its Associates and Customers. Decisions and corrective actions in this area are at CTFO's sole and absolute discretion.

Social Media sites may not be used to sell or offer to sell any other products of a direct marketing company other than CTFO products. PROFILES AN ASSOCIATE GENERATES IN ANY SOCIAL COMMUNITY WHERE CTFO IS DISCUSSED OR MENTIONED MUST CLEARLY IDENTIFY THE ASSOCIATE AS A CTFO INDEPENDENT ASSOCIATE, and when an Associate participates in those communities, Associates must avoid inappropriate conversations, comments, images, video, audio, applications or any other adult, profane, discriminatory or vulgar content. The determination of what is inappropriate is at the Company's sole discretion, and offending Associates will be subject to disciplinary action. Banner ads and images used on these sites must be current and must come from the Company approved library. If a link is provided, it must link to the posting Associate's Replicated website or an approved third-party website.

Anonymous postings or use of an alias on any Social Media site is prohibited, and offending Associates will be subject to disciplinary action.

Associates may not use blog spam, spamdexing or any other mass-replicated methods to leave blog comments. Comments Associates create or leave must be useful, unique, relevant and specific to the blog's article.

Associates must disclose their full name on all Social Media postings, and conspicuously identify themselves as an independent Associate for CTFO. Anonymous postings or use of an alias is prohibited.

Postings that are false, misleading, or deceptive are prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, false or deceptive postings relating to the CTFO income opportunity, CTFO products, and/or your biographical information and credentials Associates are personally responsible for their postings and all other online activity that relates to CTFO. Therefore, even if an Associate does not own or operate a blog or Social Media site, if an Associate posts to any such site that relates to the Company or which can be traced to the Company, the Associate is responsible for the posting. Associates are also responsible for postings which occur on any blog or Social Media site that the Associate owns, operates, or controls.

As a CTFO Associate, it is important to not converse with any person who places a negative post against you, other Associates, or the Company. Report negative posts to the Company Compliance Department. Responding to such negative posts often simply fuels a discussion with someone carrying a grudge that does not hold themselves to the same high standards as CTFO, and therefore damages the reputation and goodwill of the Company.

The distinction between a Social Media site and a website may not be clear-cut, because some Social Media sites are particularly robust, CTFO therefore reserves the sole and exclusive right to classify certain Social Media sites as third-party websites and require that Associates using, or who wish to use, such sites adhere to the Company's policies relating to third-party websites.

If your CTFO business is cancelled for any reason, you must discontinue using the Company name, and all of the Company's trademarks, trade names, service marks, and other intellectual property, and all derivatives of such marks and intellectual property, in any postings and all Social Media sites that you utilize. If you post on any Social Media site on which you have previously identified yourself as an independent CTFO Associate, you must conspicuously disclose that you are no longer an Associate with the Company.

Failure to comply with these Policies for conducting business online may result in the Associate losing their right to advertise and market CTFO products and the CTFO opportunity online in addition to any other disciplinary action available under the Policies and Procedures.

9.5 Advertising and Promotional Materials

- A. You may not advertise any CTFO products at a price LESS than the highest company published, established retail price plus shipping, handling and applicable taxes. No special enticement advertising is allowed. This includes, but is not limited to, free shipping, or other such offers that grant advantages beyond those available through the Company.
- B. Advertising and all forms of communications must adhere to principles of honesty and propriety.
- C. All advertising, including, but not limited to, print, Internet, computer bulletin boards, television, radio, etc., are subject to prior written approval by the Company Compliance Department.
- D. All requests for approvals with respect to advertising must be directed in writing to the Company Compliance Department.
- E. CTFO approval is not required to place blind ads that do not mention CTFO, its employees, any of its products, services, designs, symbols, programs, and trademarked, copyrighted, or otherwise protected materials.
- F. CTFO reserves the right to rescind its prior approval of submitted advertising or promotional materials in order to comply with changing laws and regulations, and may require the removal of such advertisements from the marketplace without obligation to the affected Associate.

9.6 Testimonial Permission

- A. By signing the CTFO Associate Agreement, an Associate gives the Company permission to use his or her testimonial or image and likeness in corporate sales materials, including but not limited to print media, electronic media, audio and video. In consideration of being allowed to participate in the CTFO opportunity, an Associate waives any right to be compensated for the use of his or her testimonial or image and likeness even though the Company may be paid for items or sales materials containing such image and likeness. In some cases, an Associate's testimonial may appear in another Associate's advertising materials. If an Associate does not wish to participate in CTFO sales and marketing materials, he or she should provide a written notice to the Company Compliance Department to ensure that his or her testimonial or image and likeness will not be used in any corporate materials, corporate recognition pieces, advertising or recordings of annual events.

9.7 Telemarketing Limitations

- A. An Associate must not engage in telemarketing in relation to the operation of the Associate's CTFO business. The term "telemarketing" means the placing of one or more telephone calls to an individual or entity to induce the purchase of CTFO products, or to recruit them for the CTFO opportunity.
- B. The Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") and the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") each have laws that restrict telemarketing practices. Both Federal agencies, as well as a number of states have "do not call" regulations as part of their telemarketing laws.
- C. While an Associate may not consider himself or herself a "telemarketer" in the traditional sense, these regulations broadly define the term "telemarketer" and "telemarketing" so that the unintentional action of calling someone whose telephone number is listed on the Federal "Do Not Call" registry could cause the Associate to violate the law. These regulations must not be taken lightly, as they carry significant penalties (up to $11,000 per violation).
- D. "Cold calls" or "state-to-state calls" made to prospective Customers or Associates that promote either CTFO products or the CTFO opportunity is considered telemarketing and is prohibited.
- E. Exceptions to Telemarketing Regulations

An Associate may place telephone calls to prospective Customers or Associates under the following limited situations:

- I. If the Associate has an established business relationship with the prospect;
- II. In response to the prospect's personal inquiry or application regarding a product offered by the CTFO Associate, within three (3) months immediately before the date of such a call;
- III. If the Associate receives written and signed permission from the prospect authorizing the Associate to call;

1325 Airmotive Way, Suite 175-L
Reno, NV 89502

support@myctfo.com

I. If the call is to family members, personal friends, and acquaintances. However, if an Associate makes a habit of collecting business cards from everyone he/she meets and subsequently calls them, the FTC may consider this a form of telemarketing that is not subject to this exemption;

- V. Associates engaged in calling “acquaintances,” must make such calls on an occasional basis only and not as a routine practice.
- F. An Associate shall not use automatic telephone dialing systems in the operation of his or her CTFO business.
- G. Failure to abide by Company policies or regulations as set forth by the FTC and FCC regarding telemarketing may lead to sanctions against the Associate’s position, up to and including termination of the position.
- H. By signing the Associate Agreement, or by accepting commission checks, other payments or awards from the Company, an Associate gives permission to CTFO and other Associates to contact them as permitted under the Federal Do Not Call regulations.
- I. In the event an Associate violates this section, the Company reserves the right to institute legal proceedings to obtain monetary or equitable relief.

10.0 CHANGES TO AN ASSOCIATE BUSINESS

10.1 Modification of the Associate Agreement

An Associate may modify his or her existing Associate Agreement (i.e., change a social security number to a Federal ID number, add a Spouse or partner to the account, or change the form of ownership from an individual to a Business Entity owned by the Associate) by submitting a written request, accompanied by a new Associate Agreement and the Business Registration Form, if applicable, completed with fresh signatures (not a “crossed out” or “white-out” version of the first Agreement), and any appropriate supporting documentation.

10.2 Change Sponsor or Placement for Active Associates

- A. Maintaining the integrity of the organizational structure is mandatory for the success of the Company and our independent Associates. As such, under exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the Company, a request to change placement may only be made within the first three (3) days of initial enrollment as an Associate. Furthermore, such changes may only occur within the same organization.
- B. Sponsors may make “Placement changes” from one Associate to another for personally Sponsored (frontline) Associates during the first three days of enrollment.
- C. New Associates or their original Sponsor may request a change of Sponsor or Placement within the first three days of enrollment for the purpose of structuring an organization. The new Associate Agreement must be received within the calendar month for commission calculations to be effective with the requested change.

- D. To change or correct the Sponsor, an Associate must comply with following procedures:
 - I. Submit a Sponsor Placement Transfer Form;
 - II. Submit a CTFO Associate Agreement showing the correct Sponsor and Placement, and any appropriate supporting documentation;
 - III. The Associate Agreement must be a new, completed document bearing “fresh” signatures, not a “crossed-out” or “white-out” version of the first Agreement.
- E. Upon approval, the Associate’s downline, if any, will transfer with the Associate.
- F. After the first 30 days from initial enrollment, the Company will honor the Sponsor/Placement as shown:
 - I. On the most recently signed Associate Agreement on file; or
 - II. Self-enrolled on the website (i.e., electronically signed web Agreement).
- G. CTFO retains the right to approve or deny any requests to change Sponsor or Placement, and to correct any errors related thereto at any time and in whatever manner it deems necessary.

10.4 Change Organizations

- A. If an Associate wishes to transfer organizations, he or she must submit a letter of resignation to the Company Customer Service Department and remain inactive (place no orders nor make any sales) with or in CTFO for six (6) months from the receipt of the letter before being eligible to re-enroll under a different Sponsor/Placement.
- B. CTFO retains the right to approve or deny any request to re-enroll after an Associate’s resignation.
- C. If re-enrollment is approved, the former Associate will be issued a new CTFO ID number and will be required to submit a new Associate Agreement. The Associate will not be entitled to keep any former rank, downline, or rights to commission checks from any prior organization.
- D. Transfers may not be done outside of the original organization.

10.5 Unethical Sponsoring

- A. Unethical sponsoring activities include, but are not limited to, enticing, bidding or engaging in unhealthy competition in trying to acquire a prospect or new Associate from another Associate or influencing another Associate to transfer to a different sponsor.

1325 Airmotive Way, Suite 175-L
Reno, NV 89502
707-449-4567
support@myctfo.com

- B. Allegations of unethical sponsoring must be reported in writing to the Company Compliance Department to compliance@myctfo.com, within the first 90 days of enrollment. If the reports are substantiated, CTFO may transfer the Associate or the Associate's downline to another sponsor, Placement or organization without approval from the current up-line Sponsor or Placement Associates. The Company remains the final authority in such cases.
- C. CTFO prohibits the act of "Stacking." Stacking is the unauthorized manipulation of the Company compensation system and/or the marketing plan in order to trigger commissions or cause a promotion off a downline Associate in an unearned manner. One example of stacking occurs when a Sponsor places participants under an inactive downline without his or her knowledge in order to trigger unearned qualification for commissioning. Stacking is unethical and unacceptable behavior, and as such, it is a punishable offense with measures up to and including the termination of the independent consultant positions of all individuals and/or entities found to be directly involved.
- D. Should Associates engage in solicitation and/or enticement of members of another direct sales company to sell or distribute CTFO products to, they bear the risk of being sued by the other direct sales company. If any lawsuit, arbitration, or mediation is brought against an Associate alleging that they engaged in inappropriate recruiting activity of another company's sales force or Customers, CTFO will not pay any of Associate's defense costs or legal fees, nor will the Company indemnify the Associate for any judgment, award, or settlement.

10.6 Sell, Assign or Delegate Ownership

- A. In order to preserve the integrity of the hierarchical structure, it is necessary for CTFO to place restrictions on the transfer, assignment, or sale of a position.
- B. A CTFO Associate may not sell or assign his or her rights or delegate his or her position as an Associate without prior written approval by the Company, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld. Any attempted sale, assignment, or delegation without such approval may be voided at the discretion of the Company.
- C. Should the sale be approved by CTFO, the Buyer assumes the position of the Seller at the current qualified title, but at the current "paid as" rank, at the time of the sale and acquires the Seller's Downline.
- D. To request corporate authorization for a sale or transfer of a CTFO position, the following items must be submitted to the Company Compliance Department:
 - I. A Sale/Transfer of position Form properly completed, with the requisite signatures.

10.7 Separating a CTFO Business

- A. Pending a divorce or dissolution of a partnership or other business entity, the parties must adopt one of the following methods of operation:
 - I. One of the parties may, with the written consent of the other(s), operate the CTFO business whereby the relinquishing Spouse, shareholders, partners, members or trustees authorize the Company to deal directly and solely with the other Spouse, non-relinquishing shareholder, partner, member or trustee;
 - II. The parties may continue to operate the CTFO business jointly on a “business as usual” basis, whereupon all compensation paid by the Company will be paid in the name designated as the Associates or in the name of the entity to be divided, as the parties may independently agree between them. If no name is stipulated, the Company will pay compensation to the name on record and in such event, the Associate named on the account shall indemnify CTFO from any claims from the other business owner(s) or the other Spouse with respect to such payment.
- B. CTFO recognizes only one Downline organization and will issue only one commission check per CTFO business per commission cycle. Under no circumstances will the Downline of an organization be divided, nor will the Company split commission and/or bonus checks.
- C. If a relinquishing Spouse, partner or owner of the business has completely relinquished (“Relinquishing Party”), in writing, all rights to the original CTFO business, he or she may immediately thereafter re-enroll under the Sponsor and Placement of his or her choice. In such cases, however, the Relinquishing Party shall have no rights to, and shall not solicit, any Associate or active Customer in the former organization, and must develop a new business in the same manner as any other new CTFO Associate. An Associate in the Relinquishing Party’s former Downline who wishes to transfer to the Relinquishing Party’s new organization or to any other organization, must comply with the requirements in Section 12.5.

10.8 Succession

- A. Upon the death or incapacity of an Associate, the Associate’s business may be passed on to his or her legal successors in interest (successor). Whenever a CTFO business is transferred by will or other testamentary process, the successor acquires the right to collect all bonuses and commissions of the deceased Associate’s sales organization. Payments will be based on the current performance of the position, not the highest rank or volume achieved.
- C. If the business is bequeathed to joint devisees (successors), they must form a business entity and acquire a Federal taxpayer identification number. CTFO will issue all bonus and commission payments and one 1099 Miscellaneous Income Tax form to the managing business entity only.

- G. If the successor wishes to terminate the CTFO position, he or she must submit a notarized statement stating the desire to terminate the position, along with a certified copy of the death certificate, appointment as trustee, and/or any other appropriate legal documentation.
- H. Upon written request, CTFO may grant a one (1) month bereavement waiver and pay out at the last “paid as” rank.
